

Kimberly (Kim) Jordan has been with NC Division of Health & Human Services for over 15 years. She began working with NC Division of Services for the Blind, and is currently working with Employment and Independence for People with Disabilities (EIPD), formerly Vocational Rehabilitation. She began working in Union County with EIPD as a Rehabilitation Counselor, since November 2019. Kim enjoys spending quality time with her 4 grandchildren, either watching their football and soccer games, planting a potted garden, or watching their favorite movies.

Nicole (Nikki) Myers is the Director of Compass Education at South Piedmont Community College, where she serves the IDD population. She is passionate about her students. Nikki works with students to increase their academic skills which helps prepare them for further education and/or employment. She has been in this position at SPCC for 3 years. Prior to this, she worked at UCPS for 17 years. Nikki has been married to her husband, Rich, for 31 years and has lived in Union County for 27 years. She has 2 daughters and one grandson. She's an active member of her church and serves on the Special Olympics steering committee for Union County.

Rasheen Rorie is the program Manager for Medicaid. In her role she utilizes her organizational management skills to encourage autonomy to foster confidence and accountability with her teams. She works to provide quality customer service internally and externally within human services. On a daily basis she utilizes problem-solving skills and conflict resolution to address the various needs of the employees and clients. Rasheen has been with Union County Division of Human Services since 2016 working in both Food and Nutrition Services and Medicaid programs. She has over 7 years of experience in mental health and substance field. Rasheen brings a wealth of knowledge from working in the public and private sector. She has her master's in business administration and is currently pursuing her master's in social work at Wingate University.

Aleshia Holland is the Senior Center Supervisor at the Bazemore Active Adult Center in Monroe. Previously she worked as a Programs Supervisor at the Stanly County Senior Center for over eight years. Aleshia received her bachelor's degree in human services from Gardner Webb University. Since 2014, she has been working with organizations whose mission is to assist with increasing and maintaining independence in older adults. Aleshia thoroughly enjoys being involved in her community. She has served as Vice President on the CARE Café board and has been a member of Relay for Life and United Way committees where she assisted with fundraising. In addition to her work, Aleshia enjoys spending time with her family and volunteering at the Community Inn homeless shelter.